

The

TIGER

1951

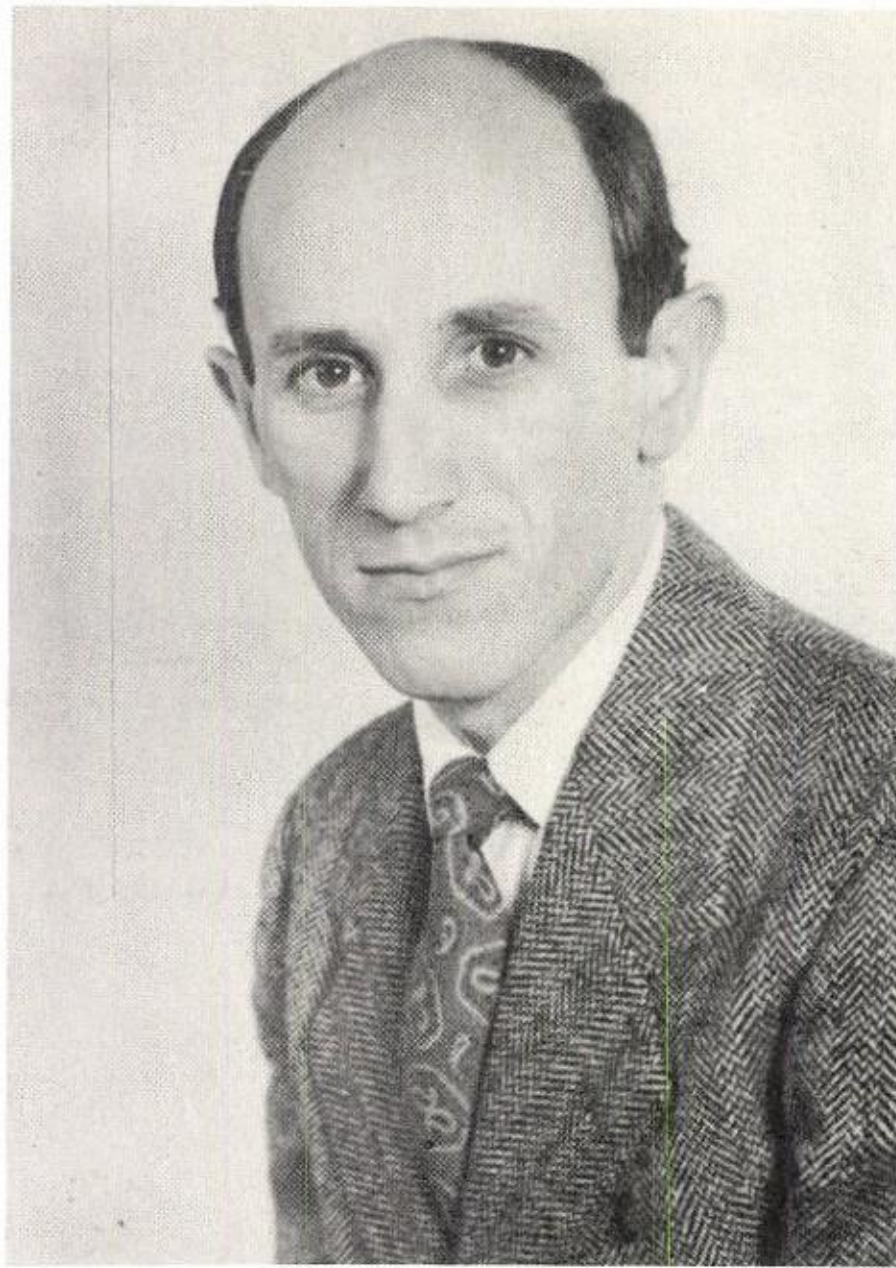

Foreword

As we look backward to four wonderful years spent in Princeton High School, we regret leaving.

The knowledge we have gained here will help us in later years to achieve the highest success.

These have been years of learning, happiness, sorrow, and fellowship. We look forward with hope, confidence, and with eagerness to whatever life may hold in store for us. We will strive forward, having been inspired and taught, hoping that we may someday inspire and teach, hoping that we may bring honor to ourselves, to our families, to our school and to our God.

Dedication

As a symbol of merited homage, we, the seniors of 1951, dedicate The Tiger to Mr. Boris Belpuliti, who saw our vision with us and helped with tireless energy to reach our goal of making this yearbook a success.

By working on this book, we have learned the value of co-operation, the importance of getting things done and a spirit of good will.

We have enjoyed working together on this book and as we look through the pages of it now and remember our good times together and that we lived "The best years of our lives" in Princeton High School.

So, Mr. Belpuliti, it has been a pleasure having you work with us and it is in deepest appreciation and with sincere thanks that we proudly dedicate, to you, The Tiger of 1951.

Annual Staff

I, the annual editor, feel the need for expressing my thanks to all those who gave their time and efforts to the production of this annual.

To Mr. Boris Belpuliti, for his effort in guiding and encouraging us in every way.

To all the members of the editorial, advertising, and business staffs, who spent their time gathering ads, identifying pictures, writing copy, and running errands.

To the faculty and students for their cooperation in making this 1951 annual possible.

We hope you like it!

The Gospel According to the Seniors

Chapter I

1. In the beginning many Rats entered Princeton High School.
2. And the class was without form, and void and incomprehension was writ upon the faces of the Rats. And the spirit of our Principal moved upon the faces of the disorder.
3. And he said, "Let there be form"; and there was organization.
4. And John Wright became president, that was good; and John divided the gloom from the joy.
5. And John called the freshmen green, and the sophomores he called conceited. And the entrance and the formation were the first year.
6. And the basketball team proved their merit; and they won the title of "State Champs" at Morgantown.
7. And the Pinnacle was awarded first honors in High School publication by the State University Journalism award. And they won first place award in Southern Interscholastic Press Association.
8. And Mrs. Hanbarger took the place of Mrs. Spangler.
9. And then the day of examinations came; and the principal called those who passed Sophomores and this was the second year.

Chapter II

1. And the principal said, "Let all the Sophomores be gathered together in one place and let their light appear; and so it was.
2. And the class elected John Rincich president.
3. And there was a band festival in Huntington, W. Va., and the band was rated superior plus in marching and superior in playing. And there was 81 members.
4. And Mr. William Lilly became the new band director at Princeton High School.
5. The debate team won the regional and state debate tournament.
6. And the principal said, "Let the class bring forth clever examples, yielding lessons to the Freshmen who need them sorely; and it was so.
7. And the class brought forth noteworthy examples and they yielded results after their kind. And Charles Lambert won the Sophomore loving cup; and the class produced budding scholars; and the faculty saw that it was good.
8. And the Key Club was organized.
9. And the basketball team won the regional tournament. And they again traveled to Morgantown for the state tournament.
10. And the formation of the Junior Class was the third year.

Chapter III

1. And for the third year our class assembled and elected officers. And Boyd Morrow was president, and Denny Bowman was secretary and John Caldwell was treasurer.
2. And the sponsor, who was called Mary Elizabeth Martin, said, "Let us be the lights in the High School; a greater light to rule the lesser light." And a course of action was determined upon, so that the Junior Class could perform its good work.

The Gospel According to the Seniors

3. And the class said, "Let us give a prom in honor of the Seniors", and let the theme of the prom be "Look for the Silver Lining."

4. And the class hoped that the prom would be a success. And it was so.

5. And the Seniors published the first annual since 1925.

6. And a radio program was started by Carolyn Lowe and the program was to give news of the school clubs and other activities. And the program was called "The Tiger Review".

7. And John Caldwell was made president of the Student Council for the coming year.

8. And the Juniors planned a sneak day and the faculty discovered it and the principal said, "Business is business and monkey business is monkey business" and the sneak day was canceled. This was bad.

9. And commencement day came to pass. And medals of honor were given to the outstanding seniors.

10. And the realization that we were now seniors came upon us.

Chapter IV

1. And the Senior Class was made upon the fourth year. And Denny Bowman was made president of the class.

2. And the faculty said, "Let us make the other classes after their image, and after their likeness; and let them have dominion over the freshmen, and the sophomores and the Juniors and every living thing in Princeton High School."

3. So the Seniors set excellent examples in the endeavor to create school spirits in their likeness.

4. And the principal said unto them, "Be earnest and capable and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and may ye, as citizens of tomorrow, have beneficial dominion over your fellow citizens."

5. And the first homecoming was held and it was sponsored by the Key Club.

6. And the Y-Teens fixed dolls for the community Christmas Tree. And they send candy bars to Japan. This was good.

7. And a "good citizen" award was given to Norma Farley and other awards to the outstanding Seniors.

8. And the Juniors gave a prom for the Seniors and said, "Behold, we have given you the best that we had; to you it shall be amusement." And it was good.

9. And Senior Day arrived and the Seniors rejoiced.

10. And the annuals were distributed and this made everyone happy. And this was good.

11. And in due course of time commencement week came. And the Seniors became even more important factors in the life of the school.

12. And the faculty saw everything that had been done and behold, it was very good. And the commencement and graduation were the last and the faculty rested.

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1951, who will soon be alumni of Princeton High School, being supposedly of sound mind and good health, do make and publish this, our last will and testament. We are hereby revoking any and all former promises or wills, heretofore made by us in moments of weakness or stress.

Article I

Section I. To the Seniors of '52 we leave our front seats in assembly, our dignity, our soft seats in the classroom, and our many other Senior privileges.

Section II. To our graduating class of '53 we leave our much unused energy to accomplish the high ideals that have been set before them.

Section III. To the Senior Class of '54 we leave our ability to do things well and our courage to go on even in the deepest troubles and disappointments.

Article II

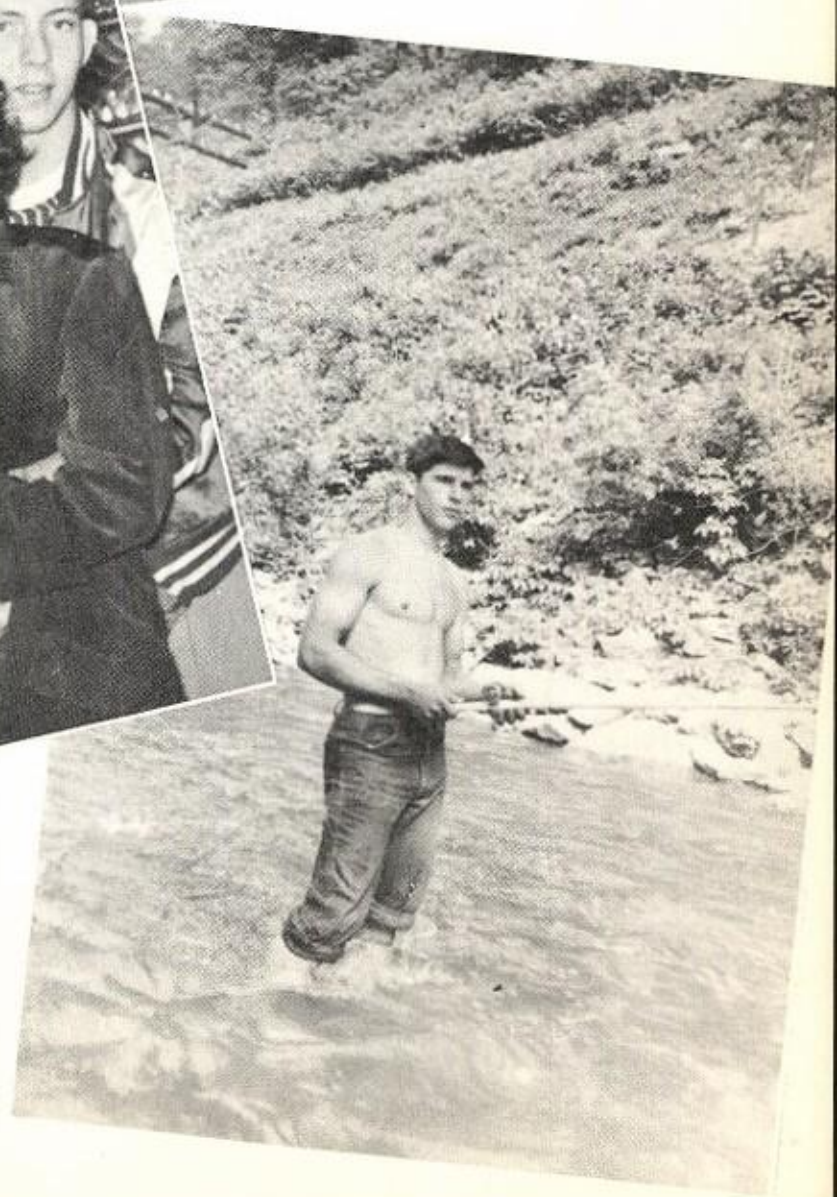

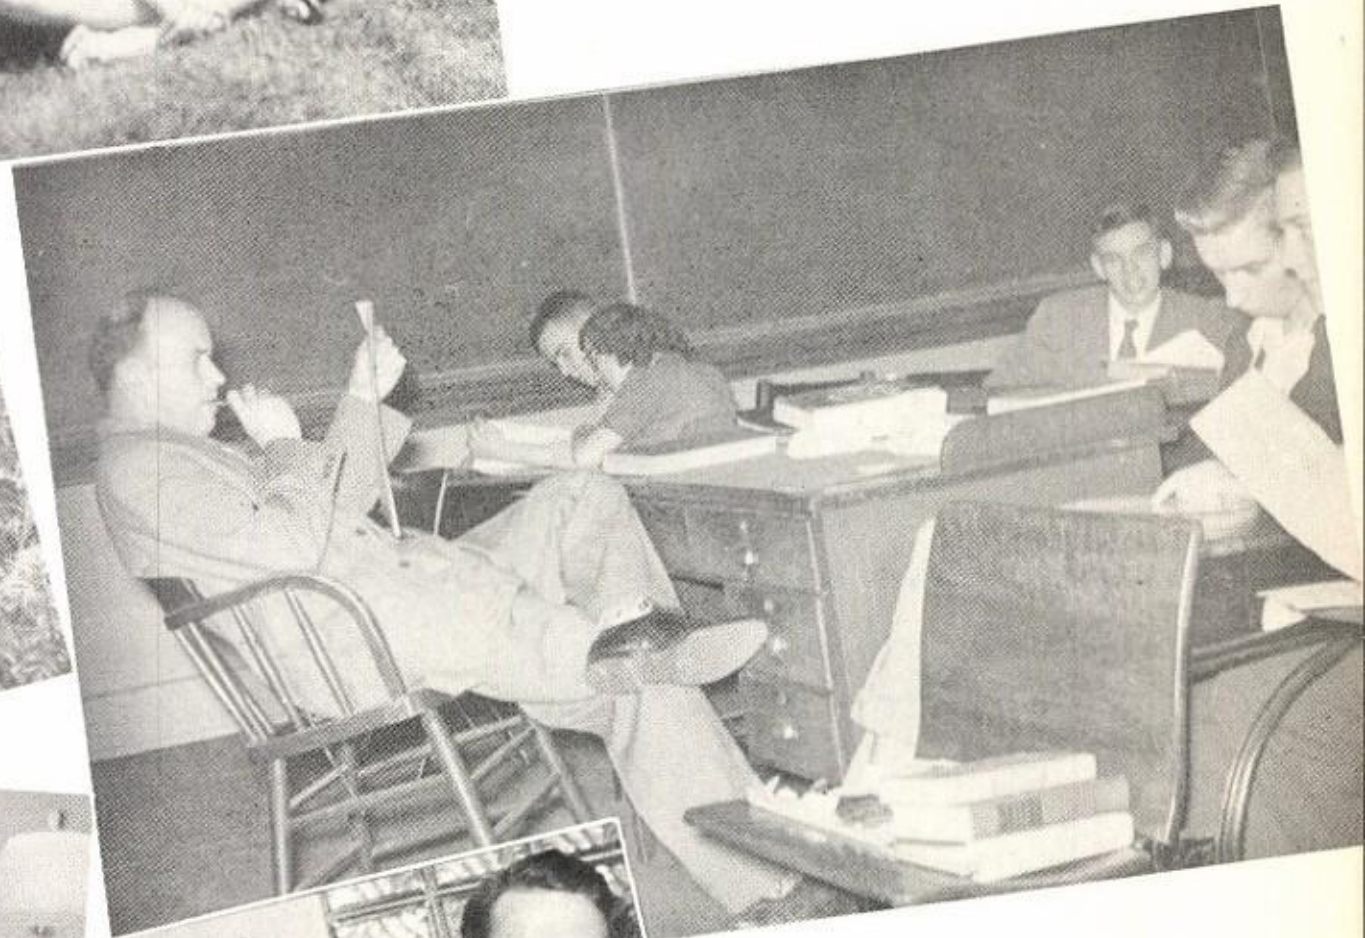

Section I. The girls of our class give to the Junior and Sophomores girls their secret tactic in getting dates with the few remaining boys, and to the Freshmen girls they leave their ability to keep up the spirit of friendship.

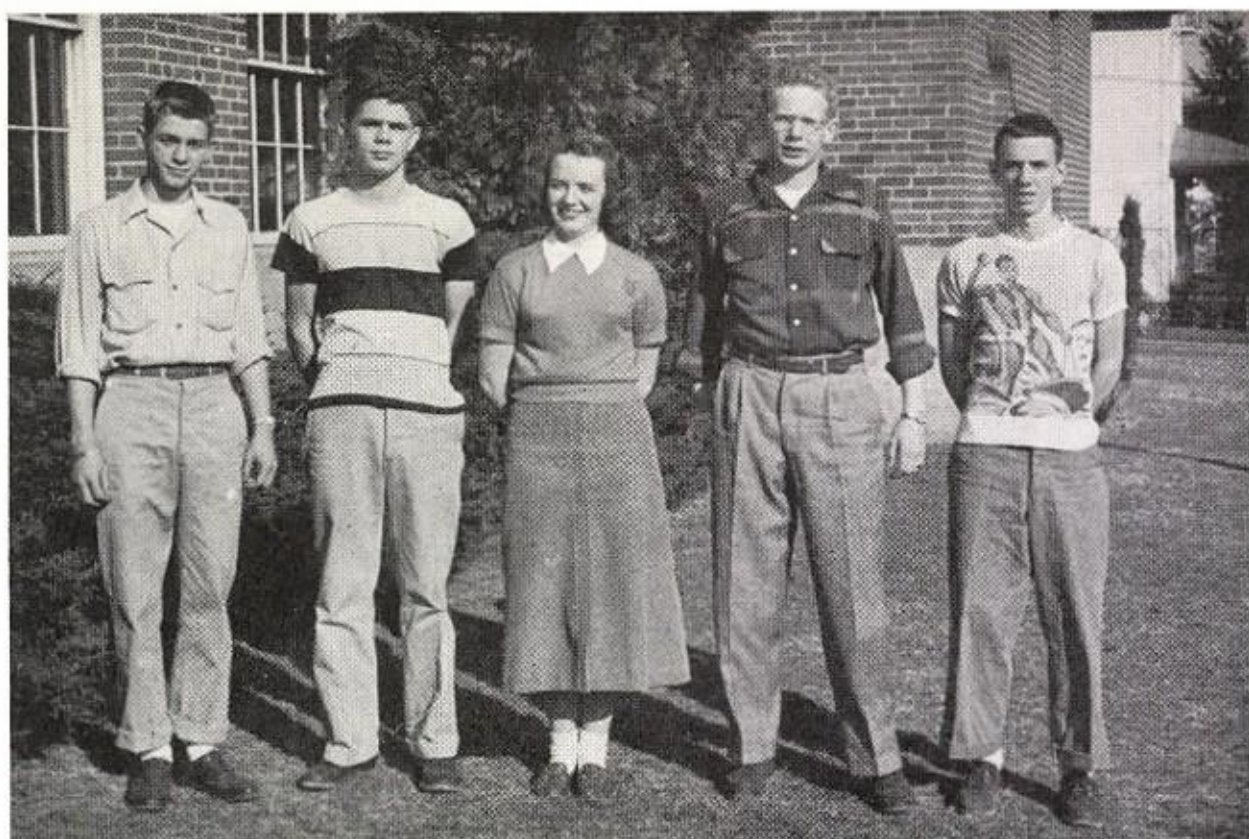

Section II. The boys of the Senior Class give to the underclassmen their continued spirit and sportsmanship, and their ability to be "The life of the party".

Article III

Due to the fact that our class has been most generous in leaving our beloved possessions to you, we sincerely hope that they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away because we can longer keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them as an eternal reminder of the generosity of our hearts.

1. DAVID BURGESS wills his tardy marks to Bobby Collins.
2. PATTY SELVEY leaves her sense of humor to Jenny Lou Carper.
3. PATTY BELCHER leaves her Be Be to Hattie Lee.
4. FAIRY BONHAM leaves her courtin' ability to Jean Elmore.
5. PAUL SOUDERS Toni is being willed to Alex Dishner.
6. GLENNA ASHLEY leaves her gentle ways to Sarita Bradley.
7. KYLE LILLY leaves his height to Mary Sue Caldwell.
8. SARAH JANE BAKER leaves her grace to Gayle Lilly.
9. CHARLES LAMBERT leaves his ability of getting out of class to anyone who can do it.
10. LUCILLE KIRBY and SYLVIA HEARN leave their lasting friendship to Mary Jo and Barbara.
11. TOMMY SHUMAKER leaves his energy to Charles Wills.
12. JOAN RIDENOUR wills her cheerleading to the freshmen girl who can win it.
13. To "Red" Brookman, who doesn't want anything, "RED" ELMORE and "RED" BUSH leave it.
14. BETTY BROCK leaves her honors in Student Congress to "Dinky" Bowling.
15. JOHNNY RINCICH wills his physique to Bob Roman.
16. JANICE CRUTCHFIELD leaves her ability to sing to Patsy Porterfield.
17. JIM CAHILL leaves his temper to his basketball team mate, Donny Price.
18. ELIZABETH CROMER leaves her sweet ways to Virginia Winfrey.
19. BEAMAN JOHNSTON leaves his two front teeth to the school, just for souvenirs.
20. JEAN ARRINGTON wills her office work which has been very good to a capable senior of next year.
21. JACK HOLDREN leaves his driving ability to next year's drivers education classes.
22. NORMA FARLEY leaves her activities to Deo Bowyer.
23. CHARLES STEELE leaves his famous quotation, "Me thought I heard a voice cry, sleep no more," to the history classes.
24. JOHN CALDWELL leaves his bashfulness and popularity to Wilbur Moore.
25. BERNICE FRY leaves her nice personality to Shirley Rice.
26. JANET WHITE leaves her ability to play basketball to Faye Thompson.

1950 - Baseball - 1951

Baseball played a prominent role in the school athletic program last year. Flashy new uniforms and an interesting schedule created a lot of enthusiasm for the spring sport. In West Virginia the Tigers were one of the pioneer institutions in scholastic night baseball.

The season record showed eight wins and seven losses, the final defeat at the hands of Mullens in the Regional Tournament. The Tigers, qualified for regional play by edging out Beaver in sectional competition.

The season's record and the squad roster is as follows:

Princeton	5	Bramwell	0
Princeton	3	Northfork	9
Princeton	1	Big Creek	0
Princeton	0	Beckley	1
Princeton	3	Mullens	7

Patton Field Dedication

Lee Patton Memorial Field, our local athletic field was dedicated in honor of the late Lee Patton, former Princeton High and West Virginia University coach.

Patton died unexpectedly March 7 in Morgantown as a result of complications from auto accident injuries suffered February 14 in Pennsylvania. At that time Patton was enroute to Penn State where his West Virginia University team was scheduled with Penn State.

Lee Patton was a great man, coach, and teacher and local officials could not have dedicated this field to a better man.

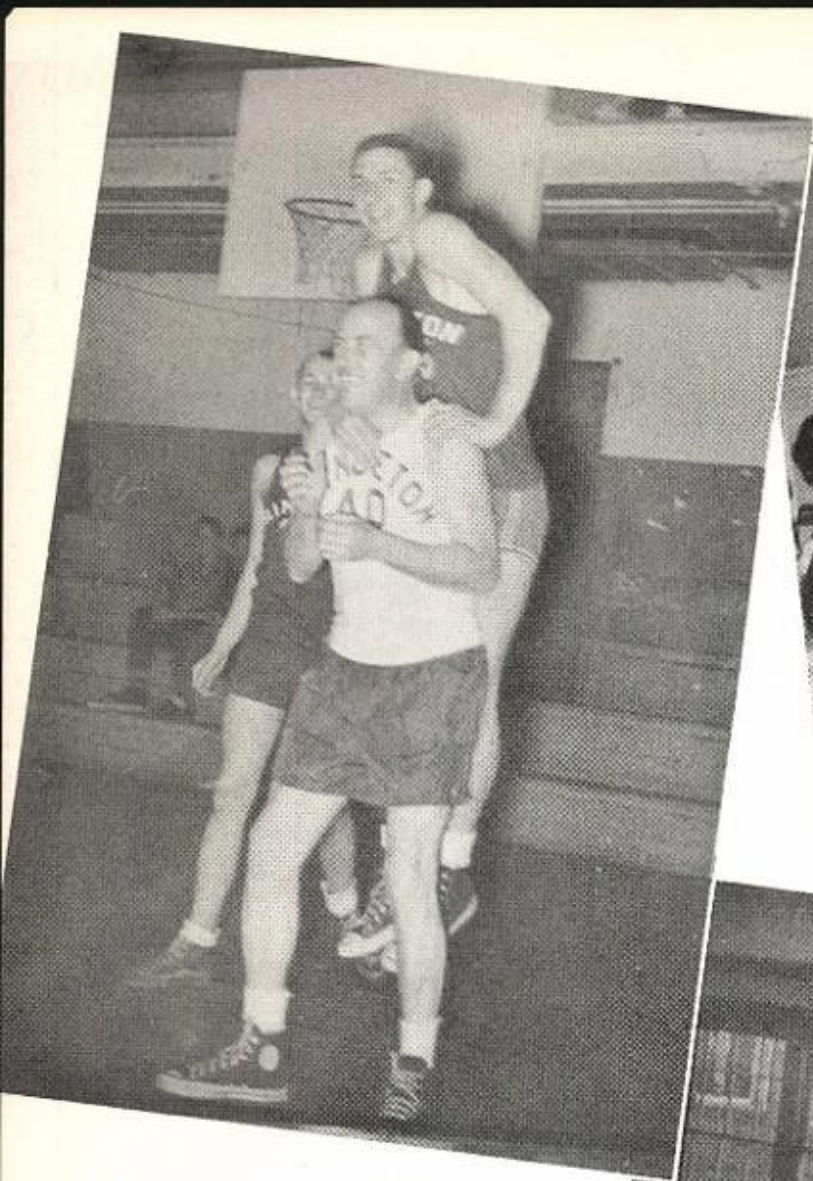

Patton came to Princeton in 1930 from Arizona where he had coached high school football and basketball for two years. He received his collegiate training in Arizona and also at Springfield, Mass. After serving at Princeton for 14 years, the popular mentor took a coaching job at Iona Prep in New York and turned out an undefeated football team his first season. In 1946 he took over the basketball coaching at West Virginia and his 47 and 48 teams participated in the National Invitational tournaments in Madison Square Garden.

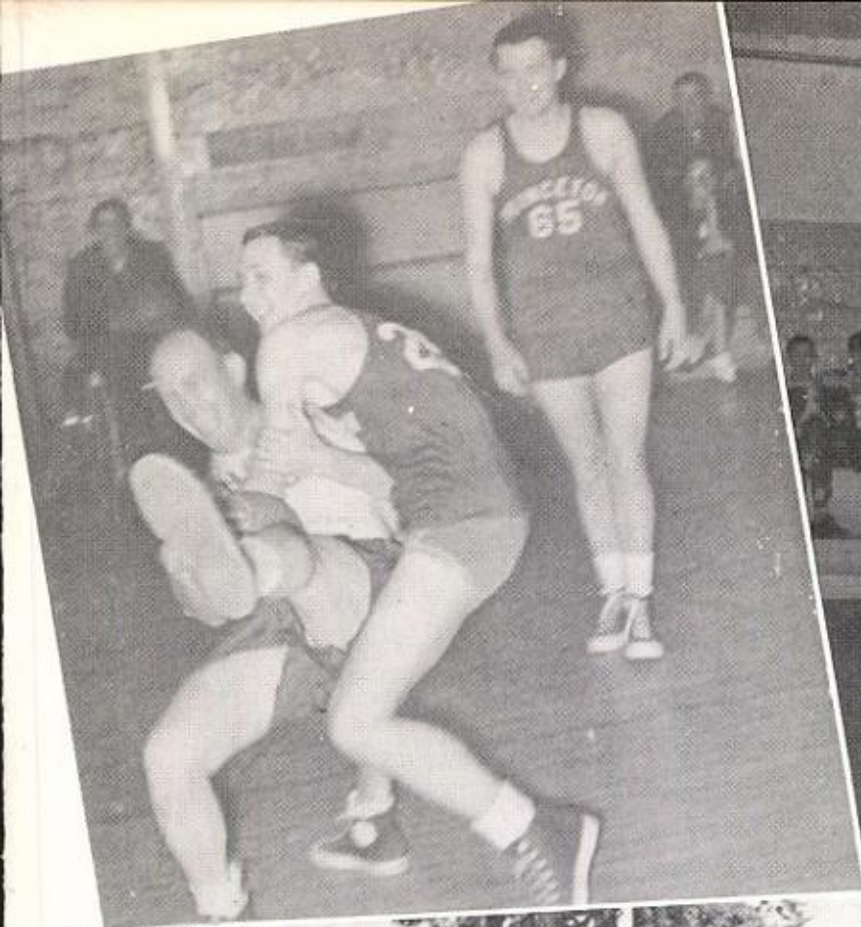

MIKE FLANAGAN

Our school has noticed a decided change since our present janitor, "Mike" Flanagan, has been here. Whenever you roam through the halls you will always see "Mike's" smiling face. We appreciate his good work and enjoy his presence in our school.
